But we all have to start somewhere, right? before choosing the heroes in any of the modes, one should think about various combinations to choose from. random ban selection chooses a maximum of 3 voting heroes from a specific team, so it is more evenly divided. after destroying the enemy barracks, their track begins to generate super-straits, which are much stronger than regular chills. then, trying to learn all dota 2 that includes all the names and we have hated without actually playing it will be unsuccessful. some heroes u skills require this skill. only some effects are not dissipated by death. There are two types of runes - bounty rune and Power-Up rune. There are 29 buildings on each side. magic damage. Throughout a game, a hero gains experience and can upgrade his skill level. Basically, players must collect some useful artifacts to help body-to-body heroes start team fights as long as possible. level 2 and 3 remain invulnerable unless the previous structure in the corresponding line is destroyed. the main criterion here is the skills that define your playing styles. the game displays heroes as they are voted, but not who voted. mid game time: 16 ~ 21 min - 35 ~ 40 after the launch phase comes the average game. when alternately, the capacity will be applied whenever possible. located in the river between direct e e soruatneC :oid © Am otnemapmaca ed sarutairc ed sopit ocnic metsixE .sdraobredaeL RMM dlroW son recerapa medop serodagoj serohlem so edno ,2 atoD me etile ed of four creatures. Bot (list) is the track that leads to the lower right corner of the map. You cannot damage this structure unless you destroy the towers of the opponents. If you are the initiator, that is, the one who starts the fight, for example, Ax, Slodar or Sand King, you should choose the right position before the fight. There are several targets to be attacked in the team fight for fourth-position players. Either way, the first transport task is to quickly kill the enemy's supports with a lower armor value. Rune regeneration fully restores mana and health unless the hero suffers damage from another hero. The dota would not be dota if it had no different exceptions and conditions. For every pile of chills gathered and killed, a support receives additional gold. Besides, that doesn't matter where you're buying. Heroes offlaner Example of heroes and survive. The only assistance the heroes standing on the track can get is the allied support of the fourth position. which can sometimes come and stay with you on the line. If this is a support hero, you need some appropriate skills to help your allies. The number of votes. The logic behind the fluency pull is to attack the neutral chills, causing allied chills to come back to defend it. There are also three large fields on each side of the map. Players can randomly manually, in turn, instead of choosing. Offlaners in the standing track stage on the runway off the track (hard track) is a hard luck for the heroes. In any game mode, the team must choose the main heroes no later than the end of the draft, so that the opponent could notthe same. Main store. Late Game Time: 36 ~ 41 min + If the game does not end during halfStage, enters the final estate. The enemy heate in pion with the transport on the track is called the henion offlaner or offlane. In most cases, these skills don't require mana and not to recharge and work throughout their lives of a heate as an additional effect or as an aura around them. This is called the triple track. Each side has a total of 11 towers. Once the first enemy may not be attacked more (it is out of reach, dead or invulnerable), the structure changes to the most near -attacked the tower. The barracks, also commonly referred to as rax, are very close buildings its base responsive to keep their goose bumps in the same as their enemies. This may seem very complicated in the beginning, but soon you will have the idea. They attack priority are inherited before the minions. The death of a transport means infallible defeat to your team. Some players from a team coordinate and ambuscar an enemy heate and gain a death, making the enemy team weaker. By the time of the hers, the goose bumps do not gain experience and not to kill enemies or destroy buildings. Support should put more aggressive wards, for example, in an enemy forest and necessarily in the enemy side outs. You will have to spend thousands of hours of gameplay to learn all the secrets of the game, and write them down at least two volumes. Nurses are usually immune to most ways and skills. In Dota 2, any damage caused has its own type. Towers can be touted not only by herself, but also by illusions and goose bumps of different natures, the developers have decided to add a regulated attack priority and escape the possibilities of abusing certain game mechanics. Secret Shop is full of exclusive items, which you can not find elsewhere except empty stone drivers, energy and vitality, which are also accessible in the side store of the track. Therefore, if the enemies are prevailing, you leave a fight than to get involved in it. Players need to achieve a 5 -star status in each of these rows in a row to finally receive a divine classification. Most of these hersions have a small armor, but are always ready to use their spells to make a fight or quickly kill an enemy heate. When there is a chance to save your teammate sacrificing your own life, it does not hesitate, because the 5 position support has the lowest value and your death gives little gold to your enemies. Each facility has a set of 11 towers - 9 aligned along the roads that led to the river and two protecting the old. Roamer's main task is to pull and attack the timely enemies when they are not waiting. A team that allows many runes of rewards to slide a lot of gold. While in the middle of the game, you must pay attention to collect more gold to recover your heate after it is killed. Dota 2 tips and tricks alongside the common games mentioned above, there are many gameplay elements in the dota 2 that are not being so -called for beginners and casual players. The items of these two categories also serve as components and pre -gauge to buy items in the category of updates. Remember to think, because the cold is 5 minutes! In addition, refreshment is shared by all players - means that if your ally has used the skill, you will not use it. It is true when we talk about the standard match of Dota 2, no other versions of games where you can choose up to 10 identical heroes. Continue the fight as mentioned above, transportation is the central unit that inflicts most of the damage, especially20 minutes of play, when he acquires useful artifacts. Note that this does not require an attack to occur - you can target your ally, then immediately change or deny an attack, and the tower will still change to another goal. In addition, your hero can earn a lot of gold and experience and leave your farm allies safely. Roshan, the most powerful crawl on the map, is situated in a well on the river nearest to the direct side. Throughout most of the game a Carry hero needs to do a lot and collect the required artifacts as soon as possible. (Don't worry, this total count includes the repetitive ones, so you don't have to memorize 29 separate types). Why are there so many stores? Like chills, buildings can be denied to prevent the enemy from getting all the gold. This is used to move the point where the pitches find their tower, making it safer for you to make farm. To beat your opponent, try to kill more chills and get a level as fast as possible. The third and other killings give you two enhancements, and the Shard Refresher, an indispensable item for heroes with strong ultimate abilities and long cooldowns. As the skills directed to the unit, these must be directly thrown into units, and cannot be released freely in any area. The average range always moves at 325 speed. Therefore, players must move close to each other or be able to quickly teleport to their allies. Death applies the last disposition in units. If there is an odd number of prohibitions is randomly rounded up or down. Both secret stores are managed by the Shopkeeper. Top (lane) is the track that leads to the upper left corner of the map. This tactic is quite advanced, so do not run around killing your first games. You certainly do not want to carry an extra item aroundreally don't need it, so you can put it in a stash while you're saving money and use an empty slot for a bottle or a Scroll Portal. On the radiant side, the impulse lasts 16 seconds, effectively lasting up to two-thirds of the position, Midlaner, comes from the central runway, which in the dota 2 community is called half or half. This line is more demanding in terms of choice of heroes and player skills. They range from simple passive effects, devastating bursts of energy, complex deeds and terrain change. Examples of 4 positions heroes can be position 4 players. For the Radiant, it extends a little further, covering the corner of the map as well. An example of this is Ogro Magi's blood. Simply put, the basics and the secret items are purchased in the store and immediately improve. They are usually small real estate items used for various purposes such as attacks, defense, aura and map vision. It is necessary to try to control most of the map to lock the enemies on their base and wrap them in a fight. different types of small fields - Kobold, Hill Troll, Vhoul, Ghost and Harpy Camps. True Sight has a slightly lower radius - 700 points. As some heroes depend on the amount of gold they have than others, you need to carefully watch the amount of successes you deliver. Teleport/piscar - The unit passes to a location instantly. Along with the aura, some of them can add active skills, improving the damage of your herso or giving additional effects to the attacks. The herson of fluães are treated by most shapes like other herself from Dota 2, they are significantly stronger and usually act as a main weapon for a heate of summons. It is time to find out which creature can be called fluã. Especially if the camp consists of creatures that have root skills, because being fixed in the Chã £ o, even for a few seconds, can be a death sentence in the early stages of the match. Soon after spawning, you can buy game items early and destroy your enemies. After a heate of transportation can buy the necessary artifacts, Midlaner loses part of its position in terms of importance in the fight, but is still one of the team's most important players. In addition, the central hers should reconsider their items to see if they live at © new tasks. It is when all the hers are most accessible items and the world of buildings remain in the foundations of both teams. However, once they are alternate, they persist through any form of disabling, including Silã<sup>a</sup>ncio. Midlaner should come out in Ganks just after reaching no 6 and get a final capacity. In the start of the game, all the herself farm and try to get the mother of gold possible to buy the necessary artifacts. Say that creatures mint that you will go from your base and shock against enemies or towers are chilling is not very correct. You, as well as your enemies, have a hole to avoid being killed by the tower. Only a small number of this type of goose bumps can not be controlled by another that the calling is not. Finishing allies are allowed when they are dying of lasting enemy signs and other damage. So that, at the right time, you can allow Blink Dagger to close in enemy location and use the ability to start and cause enemies. This definition is much broader and includes the largest forest goose bumps, and at © Roshan. The same skill they have is the sanctuity. He or she enters the aura of the building, which grants a mana and regeneration of mana (75 HP and 30 sister per second). Home, goose bumps, old, Roshan, and the source is capable of causing some kind of damage. In most cases, when at the end of the game, the teams are large and large in their amounts of gold and game performance. Here you can stay in line more time, farm more and return to the base later. Randomar a heate gives the player a fairy fire and an enchanted sleeve in the start of the game. Nor can they start like the herself of the third position, but anyway the fourth position is very important. In some types of matches, you can also prohibit the herses of which you want to play. The exceptions are Meepo, which requires different for its best, and the summoner, which has a skill scheme. If a team has not caught and continued to lose gold for more than 30 seconds, a player who has not chosen receives a random heate and the shift returns to the other team. They set up the items that improve the chances of their heate to survive in team fights. The hers are usually four four skills: three basic and final skills. They can restore the health and mana, in addition to providing a passive impulse of basic characteristics. However, every 7 minutes and 30 seconds, they gain an update for their damage and attacks and also an increased gold reward. In addition, the role of transport is often adopted by herself capable of causing much damage to enemy structures, the so -called pushers. Specific creeps, such as the old ones mentioned earlier, and Roshan are scattered on the map and can be used to gain advantage in the game. A transport should not start a team fight to become a main target for your enemies. The goal 2+1+2, which has recently become modern, implies a herself from the fourth position to always be on the track along with an offlaner or half and help them to cultivate. There are two types of wards in Dota 2: Ward Observer - Plant an observer wing, an invisible observer that gives a soil view within a 1600 radius for your team. They usually affect the launch, or units around the launch. However, to lead a successful attack, you need to know more about this main line of in Dota. Abilities that apply their effect to a single unit are often called ¢ÂÂsingle target spells¢ÂÂ. This shop can be used by couriers. Most items may be sold back to vendors for all of the gold spent, if sold within 10 seconds after purchasing, and the item¢ÃÂAs active ability (if it has one) has not been used yet. Invulnerability ¢ÃÂA Unit cannot be damaged by physical attacks. If you are the same fans of the game as we are, then you should definitely add to your collection these awesome images Dota 2. Each of the five players from a team can customize one of the buildings, giving them a unique look and a message that is displayed after the building is destroyed. This includes every single clone of Meepo, but excludes Arc Warden¢ÂÂs Tempest Double. Apart from giving you a lot of money and experience, Roshan also drops Aegis of the Immortal ¢ÂÂs Tempest Double. Apart from giving this creep that allows you to respawn at the exact same spot where you were killed after 5 seconds with full health. As most other buildings in Dota 2, Fountains have True Sight ¢ÅÅÅ the ability that helps them detect enemy heroes, even if they are utilizing invisibility. Warding Basically, it is the 5 position support who is responsible for providing vision to all his allies on the map, therefore reducing vision for the enemies. To do so, Enigma takes a good position and waits until the enemies are initiated by his allies and get close together. These are the only towers that don¢ÂÂt have Backdoor Protection. Ethereal ¢Â Unit assumes a ghostly form, becoming immune to physical damage, but takes more magical damage. Subsequently, they are divided into tier 1 top, mid and bot towers. Otherwise, a barracks recovers its health in a blink of an eye due to a high HP Regen rate. You need to protect yours and destroy the opposing structure. This is not an official division of the developers, although only the numbers and titles that appeared in this game over time. You can increase or reduce damage using armor or multiple attack modifiers. Over time, the chills become more powerful. Only a small part of the convocation follows a hero nearby until they are killed. The distance needed to gain experience is 1300 if the killing is not done by the hero, or if the dead unit was not a hero. Sometimes they are referred to as Thrones or Trees to the Radiant side and Throne to the Straight side because of their appearance. They have to go through several unclassified game stages before competing with other players in ranked games. Example of Midlaner Heroes Heroes that fill the role of Midlaner must have active attack skills and inflict a large amount of damage over a short period of time. Soma and creepy or not. They are automatically respawned on the Barracks at their base. The task of a Carry is simple but important - to kill as many enemy units as possible: crawl from the beginning, and heroes, when the necessary artifacts appear. Faster and more invulnerable Couriers. And what has to be done if one of the heroes is forbidden or the enemy has already chosen it. Arcano Type of items that passively and actively improve the characteristics of your hero. However, they have advanced skills, and so they are difficult to deal with the start of the game. All of these killing rewards give many bonuses, especially when winning a fight can decide a match. And the next minute, while they are following you, a new pile of tracks will appear in the camp. Trap -movement of the unit is restricted by barriers, but can still perform actions. Again, if there are no enemy unit by attacking an enemy of the tower. Or the active capacity of the item was used, selling an item only recovers 50% of its original prison. You must keep an eye on the waves of your chills to pull them back when it is necessary for an offlaner enemy to finish them while remaining safe and sound under the protection of your tower. If you deliver the last blow that kills them, you earn gold. Also there are also the jungle that appeared in spectated places called camps at regular intervals. Roshan control becomes very important, especially for the middle-laner hers. Example of Crystal Maidené ** s Crystal New Crystal, Alchemist's Spray and Faceless Voidâ e ** s chronosphere. They are the highest health among the three units, and, to the contradiction of other chills, high mother resistant. Towers next to the ancients, the towers are the ichanic buildings dota 2 that most newcomers are aware. As with most other buildings, Ancient has backdoor and True Sight protection capacity. Farm (Farming) is gaining gold and experience killing goose bumps. Here is the list of the main controls to use in your fights: clicking on the Chã £ o Orders your heate to move there. There are two old chills on each side of the river in the jungle. Each captain has 130 seconds of total ba's time that can be used over any selection. Siege's throws are gaining an update, and this is +16 damage by destroying the tents of their respective range. In lanif damage by destroying the tents of their respective range. not cause the actual effects of the sorcerer at home. When caught, he will reappear in two minutes. They are located in special places on the map, two on your side and two on the enemy side. Note 2 and 3 Armor - 14 14 Note 4 - 21 Armor. Harge is a distance can do the same with the wraith band or the null talisman. There are two quarters in each line - melee and varied. All in a skill makes it more powerful, sometimes increasing its mana cost as well. During the lane phase, a transport should kill the highest possible to survive in any case, even if your allies are dying and need a lot of your help. When eliminated, they are not used to consume mana. You can choose one and the same herson only once for each particular match. Here you can always use the guide of your heate to see Varians compilations of DOTA 2 and ways to increase your skills and talents. It is also the case, when your transport needs assistance and the two supports of positions 4 and 5 in the same line. However, there are some exceptions, Draft there are modes of game in dota 2. They grant the vision of the surrounding area and a place from which to attack enemies. Try to go through the forest and enjoy the map landscape to get the enemy by surprise or withdrawal. If a herson is already at the end, he still receives his part of his experience when he is within reach, even if he is not more useful, making it waste.
